Uninvited.. For much of my childhood and young adult years, that’s how I felt. I’ve kept journals since elementary school, and I’ll never forget one entry from sixth grade around Christmastime: “I was pretty upset today in school because I was the only other girl besides Maureen that didn’t get a present from a classmate.I felt pretty low.

Writing of a personal nature—sharing a part of my life, I take the risk of allowing myself to be exposed. I grew up in a big family and as a kid I felt loved and secure, but once I got into my teens my world turned upside down.
